To Which Group Do I Belong?

Your retirement board classifies you in a Group on the basis of the position you hold. If you are in doubt about which Group you are in, please consult with your retirement board. The four Groups are as follows:

- Group 1: "Officials and general employees including clerical, administrative and technical workers, laborers, mechanics and all others not otherwise classified." (Most people are in Group 1.)
- Group 2: Among the members of Group 2 are "Public works building police; permanent watershed guards and permanent park police; University of Massachusetts police;" and many other specific positions including but not limited to fire or police signal operators, and ambulance attendants of a municipal department who are required to respond to fires. (The type of employment classified in Group 2 tends to be somewhat more hazardous than employment in Group 1.)
- Group 3: This Group is entirely made up of members of the Massachusetts State Police.
- Group 4: Among the members of Group 4 are "members of police and fire department not classified in Group 1," and many other specific positions including but not limited to correction officers, parole officers or parole supervisors, and certain enumerated employees of a municipal light plant. (Generally speaking, Group 4 encompasses the most hazardous occupations.)
